Become More Employable at NewHolly Learning Center

Residents of Seattle's NewHolly and Othello communities have the opportunity to improve language skills and become more employable.

South Seattle Community College's NewHolly Learning Center, in partnership with the Seattle Housing Authority, is offering a class that features English as a Second Language (ESL) and math skills that are applicable to the work world and prepare participants to seek employment. English language placement testing is provided. The class meets Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. for up to 10 weeks and is open entry. The location of the class is in the Family Center at NewHolly, room 206.

An information session will be held on March 11 from 1:45 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. Call 768-6669 for more information. Interested neighborhood residents are invited to apply; however, priority is given to residents already enrolled in the Job Connection Center at NewHolly.
