Week of Andalucia – A Bit of Spain at South Seattle Community College

Escape to Spain at South Seattle Community College this October. In partnership with the Spain Association of the Pacific Northwest, the college will bring community members the sights, sounds, and flavors of the Spanish province of Andalucia. Andalucia is located in the heart of Southern Spain and home to flamenco and bullfighting. It is well known for its past of Moorish (Middle Eastern) occupation and 500 miles of Mediterranean coastline.

Schedule of Events:

FREE, Wednesday and Thursday, October 11-12, 2:00 p.m. Olympic Hall Auditorium

Films of Andalucia

- 7 vírgenes: The story of a teenager currently serving a sentence in a juvenile reform center, who is given a 48-hour leave to attend his brother's wedding.
- Los aires difíciles: The story of a man who has fled his dramatic and capricious past and who eventually has to confront his memories.
- La Leyenda del tiempo: A documentary/fiction mix inspired by the flamenco singer.

Wednesday and Thursday, October 11-12
