The South Seattle Community College Bookstore and the Northwest Wine Academy present an afternoon of reading and wine tasting, featuring South Seattle Community College instructor Arleen Williams, author of The Thirty-Ninth Victim – A Memoir.

Williams, a full-time instructor in the college's Basic & Transitional Studies department, penned this deeply personal memoir that recounts her family's journey before and after the murder of her younger sister, who was a victim of the Green River killer. It is an insightful and unforgettable family story.

South Seattle Community College's Northwest Wine Academy previews its recently-bottled 2006 Merlot and Cabernet Sauvignon, which will be released in the fall. Additional vintages will be available for sampling and purchase. South Seattle Community College's Northwest Wine Academy is a first-of-its-kind program in Western Washington and offers three certificate programs – Wine Making, Wine Marketing & Sales, and Food & Wine Pairing.

Please park in the north parking lot.

For more information call (206) 768-6634 or (206) 764-7942, www.southseattle.edu.

The South Seattle Community College Bookstore, located in the Jerry Brockey Center, is open to the public Monday-Friday.
