Alhadeff Grill Dining Room

Tour the facilities and learn about South Seattle Community College's highly regarded Culinary Arts program at a free Saturday Open House/Information Session. You'll learn about degree and certificate options in Restaurant & Food Service Production, Catering & Banquet Operations, and Pastry & Specialty Baking. Information will also be available about the college's Bachelor of Applied Science in Hospitality Management (BAS) program.

Program faculty and staff will be on hand to answer questions about program admission, career opportunities, and student services to help you succeed.

The Open House is free and light refreshments, including pastries prepared on campus, will be served. Advance registration is required; call (206) 764-5344 to reserve your spot.

Please do not wear sandals or open-toed shoes to the tour.
