Evening Food Service Expands at South Seattle Community College

Evening students at South Seattle Community College (SSCC) now have the luxury of sitting down to a nice meal before classes, skipping the rush home after work or having to pick up some unhealthy junk food.

The SSCC Food Court is now open Monday through Thursday until 8:00 p.m. Dinner is served 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. Friday hours are 6:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. The new evening food service is also open to the public.

The expanded service is a part of the newly remodeled Food Court at the college. The project is part of $2.5 million in improvements to the Culinary Arts Complex that houses the college's award-winning Culinary Arts program.

In the coming weeks, students and community members can also look forward to a remodeled Alhadeff Dining Room and the soon to open Food Services of America Teaching & Demonstration Kitchen. The kitchen will provide additional space for students and room for additional activities, including gourmet evening dinners, presentations by guest chefs and professional development activities in support of Seattle's local culinary industry.
