South Seattle Community College Awards Scholarships to Local High School Students

South Seattle Community College (SSCC) and the SSCC Foundation are pleased to announce the 2003 recipients of the SSCC Foundation High School Scholarships.

The following graduating seniors received scholarships: Gabriela Del Toro (Chief Sealth High School), Jacob Esparza (West Seattle High School), Alessandra Hansen (Franklin High School), Joanna Kimes (Franklin High School), Sheila Ordonez (Chief Sealth High School), Citlali Perez (Chief Sealth High School), and Kimberly Wagie (Kentwood High School).

The scholarships are awarded annually to graduating high school seniors and provide for a year's tuition in the coming academic year. To qualify for the scholarships, students must display academic excellence and/or financial need and must also show evidence of exceptional leadership and/or involvement in school and community activities.

The scholarships were presented at a recent reception at SSCC.

SSCC, one of the Seattle Community Colleges, is a two-year institution offering both Professional/Technical and College Transfer programs. Our 87-acre campus in West Seattle is home to 14,000 full- and part-time students. Fall quarter begins Sept. 29. For more information and a virtual campus tour, visit www.southseattle.edu.
