Bravura String Quartet to Give Concert in the South Seattle Community College Arboretum

Welcome the fall quarter at South Seattle Community College (SSCC) with a free concert – taking in the beauty of the Arboretum, Seattle Chinese Garden and excellent views of the city.

The Bravura String Quartet will give an informal, one-hour concert of chamber music and commentary at the Gazebo in the SSCC Arboretum on Sept. 16 at 3:00 p.m. The quartet will play the music of Dvorak, Mozart and others. The public is invited to bring a picnic while enjoying the music.

The Bravura String Quartet was founded in 1978, and has performed throughout the Pacific Northwest. The quartet also has been featured as a part of the “Spotlight Series” on KCTS Public Television.

The following are members of the quartet: Steve Tada, Gregg Rice, violins; Sam Williams, viola; Dave Beck, cello. For the program, Ken Wright will be assisting on violin. Beck is also co-host of KUOW’s “The Beat” program and Steve Tada is a former resident of West Seattle.
