FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

September 28, 2004

Students Find Help for College Entrance Exams

Spaces are still available at South Seattle Community College for students who want or need help preparing for the SAT college entrance exam.

Taught by our exceptional faculty, each class offers a thorough review of core topics and provides test-taking strategies. Students also have the exciting opportunity to be exposed to a college environment, as well as earn college credit.

Students who participate in Washington state's high school college credit program, Running Start, can take the courses at no cost. To learn more about this tuition-free program, students can ask their high school counselor or visit the program Web site at <http://dept.seattlecolleges.com/running>.

Interested students or parents can learn more about the SAT prep courses by calling the South Seattle Community College Academic Center at (206) 768-6600 or can sign up for courses by calling Registration at (206) 764-7938.
