The South Seattle Community College Art Gallery will host West Seattle artist Tobias Jean. His show, which runs from October 4 to noon on November 8, 2006, features beautifully rendered yarn paintings. Tobias learned this art from Fabiano Gonzalez Rios while on an extended visit to the mountains in the Mexican state of Jalisco. This is a spiritual art of the Huichol people, an indigenous tribe still practicing many of their traditional arts and culture. Tobias executes this work in the traditional manner and has developed his own iconography which reflects the spirit inhabiting all beings. A reception for the artist will be held on Wednesday, October 11 from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. Gallery hours are Monday through Friday: from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Admission is free and open to the public.
