

FACULTY DEVELOPMENT GRANT OPPORTUNITIES

The South Seattle College Foundation recognizes the important role that faculty members have in the college and has made funding faculty development a priority. Funding opportunities exist for full-time and part-time faculty members. All faculty development grants use the same application form.

Initial funding of the endowment was established through gifts of $50,000 from the SSCC Foundation in 2001, 2003 and 2004 and equal state matching contributions in each of those years. In 2008, there was also funding of $100,000 from the South Seattle College Foundation and an equal state matching contribution. The amount available for award each year will be determined each year in the Foundation's annual budget based on the earnings of the endowment. The Foundation's current spending policy sets a cap at 5% of the total endowment market value. For the 2017 year the Foundation has nearly $52,300 in available funds.

Excellence in Education - Awards may be used to fund faculty projects that encourage and promote student retention, assessment, completion and transfer to four-year college. Individuals can apply for grants up to $2,000; groups can apply for grants up to $5,000. Application deadlines for 2017 are the first Mondays in March, May and November.

Dan Evans Innovation Award - Award may be used to fund faculty projects that encourage and promote student retention, assessment, completion and transfer to four-year colleges. An award of $1,000 is available for an individual faculty member. Application deadlines for 2017 are the first Mondays in March, May and November. The Dan Evans Innovation Award can be awarded during any one of the application rounds.

Dan Evans Chair for Exceptional Faculty – Award may be used to fund faculty projects that encourage and promote student retention, assessment, completion and transfer to four-year colleges. An award of $3,000 is available for an individual faculty member. Application deadlines for 2017 are the first Mondays in March, May and November. The Dan Evans Chair for Exceptional Faculty can be awarded during any one of the application rounds. In addition to the standard application, applicants must fill out supplemental sheet (Section D of the application) stating their commitment to collaboration, commitment to improvement and leadership.
