Join us at the South Seattle Community College Bookstore and celebrate the holiday season on Monday, December 5, from 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. The Bookstore has a number of free activities that are open to the public and sure to get you in the spirit.

Ron Irvine, owner/winemaker at Vashon Winery, will be signing his book, The Wine Project: Washington State's Winemaking History. Irvine, who is an instructor at the new Northwest Wine Academy at South Seattle Community College, will be presenting material from his course. There will also be a limited wine tasting for those 21 and older.

Chef Catherine Geier from Café Flora and Tierra Learning Center will be signing her wonderful new book The Café Flora Cookbook, a creative collection of 250 vegetarian and vegan recipes everyone will enjoy.

Kris Dews, a Continuing Education Instructor at the college, is known for her easygoing style and ability to simplify even the most difficult of culinary techniques. Dews will be sharing recipes from her upcoming book, Lavender.
