Borderlands, featuring works by artists from Macedonia to Seattle, examines the concept of political borders and how these borders affect people in the global community on political, emotional, and social levels. The issues provoked by these physical and mental borderlands may range from personal stories of escape or defeat, to dreams of a future where less emphasis is placed upon political borders. Why are borders strictly monitored when it comes to sharing people, cultures and ideas, but opened up wide when it comes to trade and commercialism? Borderlands explores the impact of borders and border politics in an increasingly global world.

An opening reception will take place on February 6, from 1-2 p.m. Please join us!

Gallery hours:

Monday – 11 a.m.-6 p.m.

Tuesday-Thursday – 9 a.m.-6 p.m.

Friday – 12 noon-6 p.m.

Admission is always free and open to the public.

The mission of the South Seattle Community College Art Gallery is to introduce students and the community at large to unique artists and their works. Receptions are given to afford the opportunity of interacting with the artists. The local and campus community is encouraged to visit the Art Gallery to enjoy the inspiring works of art.
