Ready, Set, Go! focuses on the absurdly and seemingly inescapable aspects of competition that are engrained into human nature. Some pieces take a playful approach by way of faux advertising campaigns for maximum happiness or by creating visual contests for sparkly lawn manicuring cowboys. Other works take a different approach, asking serious questions about the impact of corporate presence on economically developing countries. Works in a variety of media contextualize these parts of our lives and societies showing the nature of competition as a force that gives life exciting meaning and dangerous viciousness.

Ready, Set Go! will be on view in the SSCC Art Gallery from June 23 – July 18, 2008. Please join us for an opening reception Thursday, July 3, from 1-2 pm. Art Gallery admission is always free and open to the public. Gallery hours may be found at <http://studentlife.southseattle.edu/art.html>.

The mission of the South Seattle Community College Art Gallery is to introduce students and the community at large to unique artists and their works. Receptions are held to afford the opportunity of interacting with the artists. The local and campus community is encouraged to visit the Art Gallery to enjoy the inspiring works of art.
