College Hosts Visitors from Vietnam

Ministers of Public Security tour local facilities

South Seattle Community College's International Programs office hosted 21 Vietnamese Ministers of Public Safety as part of a short term program from December 4 – 16. The program was designed to demonstrate the best practices of local law enforcement and security offices in the Seattle area.

The ministers visited many sites including the Southwest Seattle Police Precinct, Bellevue Police Department, the Microsoft Security Center, Seattle Emergency Preparedness Center, Washington State Police Patrol Academy, King County Correctional Facilities in Kent, and the Sea-Tac Airport Security Department. They also toured local cultural sites including the Pike Place Market, and took a trip to Leavenworth where they saw snow for the first time and enjoyed the traditional holiday atmosphere.
