Is it possible to make art and live? Zero health-care, mass unemployment, cuts in education and arts funding, dead-end jobs, studio space turned condo, dried up resources and slowing art sales. What happens now? How will you adapt?

live+work: artists respond to the recession invites artists in all media to submit new or ongoing work inspired by the effects of the current economic chaos as it pertains to creativity and/or livelihood – personally or globally.

Deadline for submission is February 5, 2010; artists will be notified by February 9; artwork to be delivered by February 16. Exhibit run is February 19 – March 19, 2010.

Submission details:

- A representative sample of works (digital images) - can be past work.
- CD Submission: Images submitted on CD must be jpps formatted for PC.(Maximum size is 10 inches or 1024 pixels in the longest dimension at 72ppi.)
- Artist statement; artist resume or CV
- Include SASE with sufficient postage if you would like materials returned.

Submit via email: Tracy Cilona, tcilona@sccd.ctc.edu.
