Baby Liberty by Tatiana Garmendia

Under Her Wing celebrates the mentoring and creative work of women. Ten veteran women artists teaching in the Seattle Community Colleges have chosen a student to show alongside them. Each of the women artists has a rich exhibition history and deep roots in the community, and is committed to democratizing art education and helping others develop their creative voice. In this exhibit, each mentor has asked a protégé to share in their creative and professional practice. The creativity of Under Her Wing transcends economic, racial and generational lines to celebrate the creativity and stewardship of women.

Please join us for an opening reception for the artists and community from 11:30 am – 1:30 pm on Tuesday, August 3.

Art Gallery admission is always free and open to the public. For Gallery hours and future exhibits, visit: <http://studentlife.southseattle.edu/art.html>.

The mission of the South Seattle Community College Art Gallery is to introduce students and the community at large to unique artists and their works. Receptions are given to afford the opportunity of interacting with the artists. The local and campus community is encouraged to visit the Art Gallery to enjoy the inspiring works of art.
