South Hosts Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) History Presentation Four original members of Seattle CORE discuss the Seattle Civil Rights Movement

Thursday, June 2
12 – 1:30 pm

Olympic Hall Theater
South Seattle Community College
6000 16th Avenue SW
Phone: (206) 934 -6895
Email: laura.matson@seattlecolleges.com

South Seattle Community College will host a very special presentation exploring the often untold and unknown history of Seattle's Civil Rights movement. Four original and active members of CORE – Joan Singler, Jean Durning, Bettylou Valentine, and Maid Adams – will share their eyewitness accounts and observations as they tell this riveting story.

The presentation is sponsored by South's Black Student Union and Continuing Education Department.

This event is free and open to the public.

MEDIA NOTE:

Interviews with the presenters may be scheduled by contacting Laura Matson, manager of Lifelong Learning, at (206) 934-6895, email: laura.matson@seattlecolleges.edu. Laura was raised by parents who were CORE members and she grew up on the picket lines and attended freedom schools. She will also be available to the media.
