South Seattle Community College's Puget Sound Industrial Excellence Center (PSIEC) and Pacific Associates are hosting Employment Law Update presented by Bryan O'Connor as part of its Business Breakfast series.

O'Connor has practiced labor and employment law his entire legal career. He is the Managing Partner of the Seattle Washington office of Jackson Lewis LLP. His experience includes advising numerous industries including construction, manufacturing, health care, government related services, and labor relations.

O'Connor will discuss the significant developments in employment and labor law in the past few years and explain how these developments can and do affect your business or hiring practices.

Space is limited so register now.

This program is pending approval for 2.0 recertification credit hours toward PHR, SPHR, and GPHR recertification through the Human Resource Certificate Institute (HRC).

The Georgetown Campus is also home to the Puget Sound Industrial Excellence Center (PSIEC) and the Labor Education and Research Center. The PSIEC offers corporate and customized contract training programs designed to meet specialized workforce needs. The PSIEC serves as a focal point for businesses, labor and community in support of economic development, educational opportunities, family-wage jobs, and global competitiveness in greater South King County. The PSIEC also rents facility space for meetings, training, and conferences, and supports long-term onsite partnerships with the Manufacturing Industrial Council, Aerospace Joint Apprenticeship Committee, YouthBuild, and other training organizations.
