“Web Design & Computer Art” Exhibition at South Seattle Community College

The Art Gallery at South Seattle Community College (SSCC) presents “Web Design & Computer Art” exhibition, which runs from Nov. 7 to Dec. 6.

This exhibit will feature art from students in the Web Design and Development program and computer-generated art from members of the community.

From the students, Web site designs and multimedia pieces will be showcased on computer screens throughout the gallery. Visitors will be able to interact with Web sites, Flash multimedia pieces, and view video/audio clips. Information on the creative and planning process behind these pieces will also be presented, from storyboard sketches to interface design and flowcharts.

From the community, several digital artists have been invited to display their images on the gallery walls. The artists, who all use computers as a means of self-expression, include digital photographers. The following artists have been invited to participate: Karin Schminke, Bill Ritchie, Davis Freeman, Stephen Rock, Greg Byrd, Jimm Nawrocki, Robert Aaron Wiley, Jerry Whiting, and Kevin Mason.

The public is invited to attend a reception for the artists on Tuesday, Nov. 12, from 4:00 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Where: SSCC Art Gallery.
Located next to the Bookstore in the Jerry M. Brockey Student Center.
