South Seattle Community College Offerings Keep You Busy

Are you itching to do something? South Seattle Community College's (SSCC) Continuing Education Department has something to keep either your hands or your feet busy this fall.

Get ready for the holiday season! SSCC's Pastry Chef-Instructor Jean Claude Berger will be leading the class "A SWEET TRADITION: GINGERBREAD HOUSES." The one-day class is specially designed for children 8 years and older paired with an adult who enjoys creating with them. Assemble a gingerbread house in the SSCC Pastry Lab on Saturday, Nov. 22 from 9:00 a.m. to noon. The total cost for two people is $89.

Continuing Education will also be offering "BISCOTTI BAKING" in the SSCC Pastry Lab. Come learn to make this delicious treat that goes well with coffee in the morning or with a sweet dessert wine after dinner. The class will be held on Saturday, Nov. 15 from 9:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. for $45.

If you are looking for something more active, do it with flair with Continuing Education's "BALLROOM DANCING INTERMEDIATE" or "JITTERBUG INTERMEDIATE." Either way, you will be able to impress your friends and significant other. Both classes are five sessions each, offered at the Delridge Community Center and begin Tuesday Nov. 18. The ballroom course is from 6:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. and the jitterbug course is from 7:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. Each is $40.

For more the more driven, Continuing Education offers its "BUILD AND PROTECT YOUR WEALTH" course. Learn to cut your taxes, reduce your debt, diversify your investments, fund a college education, shield your heirs from taxes, and build your retirement nest egg. This one-day course is on Saturday, Nov. 8 from 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. on the SSCC campus. It costs $45.
