South Seattle Community College Hosts Free Estate Planning Seminar

The South Seattle Community College (SSCC) Foundation is offering a free Estate Planning Seminar to the public on Saturday, Jan. 17 from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Experts will be on hand in the Jerry M. Brockey Student Center to help you plan the transfer of your assets.

Participants in the seminar will learn how recent changes in the tax laws affect strategies surrounding estate planning. Topics for discussion will include: gift and estate taxes, wills, community property law, guardianship, pre-nuptial agreements, trusts, investment strategies and instructions to physicians (living wills).

Expert speakers will include: Thomas McCully, Senior Vice President and Managing Director of Trusts and Investments at Union Bank of California; Bob Rebar, CPA, of Rebar & Associates; and Vickie Swanson, CFA, Vice President and Senior Portfolio Manager of the HighMark investment firm.

For more information, call the SSCC Foundation at (206) 764-5809 or e-mail ssccfoundation@sccd.ctc.edu.
