South Seattle Community College Celebrates Diversity with Rainbow Festival

South Seattle Community College (SSCC) will be celebrating more than a decade of diversity with its weeklong Rainbow Festival.

The Rainbow Festival will take place the week of May 14 – events the public may participate in are Monday through Thursday. The festival is sponsored by the United Student Association, SSCC's student government.

A taste of the activities planned for the week include: henna East Indian body art (Mehndi), salsa dance demonstrations, music from the Total Experience Gospel Choir ensemble, and a drum circle lead by Jahbreeze.

During the festivities, booths will also be selling various ethnic dishes for a nominal price.

Where: The South Seattle Community College
Clock Tower Plaza, located in front of the Jerry Brockey Student Center.
6000 16th Avenue, S.W., Seattle, WA 98106-1499.

When: Festivities run from May 14 – 17
Most activities are scheduled from 10:30 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.

Cost: Admission is free and open to the public.

★In case of inclement weather, events will be held inside the Jerry Brockey Student Center.★
