South Seattle Community College Culinary Student Garners Scholarship

South Seattle Community College is pleased announce that Sarah Priest is a recipient of the National Restaurant Association Educational Foundation Undergraduate Scholarship for College Students.

The $2,000 scholarships were created to encourage students who are committed to furthering their education in the restaurant and food service-related programs. The National Restaurant Association Educational Foundation is a not-for-profit organization dedicated to providing educational and training solutions that serve the needs of the entire hospitality industry.

Sarah Priest is a student in the South Seattle Community College (SSCC) Pastry and Specialty Baking track of the Culinary Arts program. Priest will use the scholarship money to finish her current studies and plans to continue on in the Catering and Banquet Operations track of the Culinary Arts program. She hopes to one day open a catering business.
