Students Find Help for College Entrance Exams

Spaces are still available at South Seattle Community College (SSCC) for students who want or need help preparing for the SAT for entrance into college.

SSCC is offering verbal and math SAT prep courses this fall quarter. Taught by our exceptional faculty, each class offers a thorough review of core topics and provides test-taking strategies. Students also have the exciting opportunity to be exposed to a college environment, as well as earn college credit. Students can take one or both of the two-credit courses at only $62.75 per credit.

Students who participate in Washington state's high school college credit program, Running Start, can take the courses at no cost. To learn more about Running Start, students can ask their high school counselor.

Interested students or parents can learn more about the SAT prep courses by calling the Academic Center at SSCC at (206) 768-6600, to sign up for courses call Registration at (206) 764-7938.
