

SOUTH SEATTLE COLLEGE

One of the Seattle Colleges

Art Gallery, Office of Student Life

Call to Artist: Botanical Show

As we move into Fall Quarter, help us bring the beauty of summer into the Art Gallery. We are looking to showcase artworks celebrating botanical subjects as well as the work of our dedicated Landscape Horticulture students. The exhibition is open to any media, from photography to poetry, sculpture to floral arrangements. Help us turn the art gallery into a secret garden in the middle of campus!

Who: Artists and writers from South Seattle College (students, faculty and staff) are eligible. Priority will be given to current and alumni students of the LHO program.

What: All visual and written medias are eligible and artwork must have been completed in the last two years. The Gallery does not have a locking showcase to display small works such as jewelry.

Where: South Seattle College Art Gallery; 6000 16th Ave. SW, JMB 109; Seattle, WA 98106

Dates:

Submission Deadline: Sep. 15th

Art Drop-Off: Sept 1st - Sept 15th

Show Open: Sept 25th - Oct. 20th

Artist Reception: TBD

Art Pick-up: Oct. 23 - 24th

Submission Information:

This is a non-juried, first come, first served exhibition, with drop off between 9/1 - 9/15. You may submit up to 5 pieces. If submitting more than one, we reserve the right to reject any submissions beyond one based on space availability. You may wish to tell us which of your submissions you prefer to be shown. We will contact you after 9/15 and before 9/21 so you can pick up any pieces not included.

If you are interested in participating please send an image or detailed description of your piece(s) to the email below or stop by the gallery.
