Most colleges and universities prefer students who are Major-Ready, meaning they have prepared for the Major of study they want to get their university diploma in.

What can I do with a major in Business?
A 4-year degree in Business can prepares you for a variety of careers. Almost every business you can think of uses Business graduates!

If you are interested in finance you might work at a bank, an investment firm or a financial planning company helping people plan for retirement or other financial goals.

Business majors can also specialize in Accounting. This degree can prepare you for a variety of positions in many fields such as advertising, international shipping, health care, hospitality and tourism or information technology. Remember most businesses have employees to handle the money-side of things.

For more information on what careers are available to Business majors, go to the Work Source office and they will help you register for WOIS /the career information system. Work Source is located here: http://www.southseattle.edu/worksource/Default.aspx. They can help you create a good resume, search for jobs and practice to interview.

What classes should I take at South Seattle Community College?
An Associate in Business degree prepares students to transfer to a four-year school with most business prerequisites. These courses are recommended for students who want to transfer to a business program at a four-year university: Associate in Business (AB).

Remember: students should work closely with the school they intend to transfer to ensure they take the appropriate courses. It is the student’s responsibility to verify prerequisite courses and application requirements with the school you are planning to attend. Contact each school directly as information may change without notice.
