Transfer News is designed to help South Seattle students negotiate the transfer process. Transfer Resources offers weekly workshops and events designed to help you decide what schools you might like to apply to, what major you are drawn to and how to complete college applications. Remember, you can find Transfer Resources on the South Seattle home page under the Student Resources tab. For more information or help, please contact Lynn Christiansen at 206/934-6478 or at Lynn.Christiansen@seattlecolleges.edu.

Winter Quarter is the time to apply yourself...

Apply...

- For Financial Aid for the 2014-2015 South Seattle Community College school year, beginning in fall 2014, by completing your FAFSA as soon as you file your income tax forms. The earlier you apply for financial aid, the quicker you will know what you qualify for!

- Applying to the UW for fall 2014? Apply for financial aid by February 28, 2014, even if you do not have your taxes done. Use the “Estimate Taxes” tool.

- Apply yourself! Interested in moving from a certificate to a 2-year degree? Make an appointment to visit an advisor to create an educational plan. Call 206/934-5387 to make an appointment now!

- Almost done? Make an appointment with an advisor to apply for graduation.

- Where do you want to apply? Check out a Transfer Fair or a Major Day. These events are offered every quarter and are a great way to see what schools, degrees and programs are available!

- Not sure how to apply yourself? Make an appointment with a counselor to discuss career options. To make an appointment with a counselor, call 206/934-5387.

- Visit Work Source and see what careers and internships are available for someone with your interests, skills and abilities! Check here: http://www.southseattle.edu/works.source/
