

COVER LETTER

Below are some skills and tips that will help you write an effective cover letter:

1. PURPOSE- Your cover letter is NOT just a summary of your resume- it should CONNECT your past skills and experiences to the position you are applying for.
2. ORGANIZATION- The information in your cover letter should flow in a logical order.
3. PROOFREAD- Use this list to check your cover letter before you hit the “Submit” button!

PURPOSE- Your cover letter should CONNECT your past skills and experiences to the position you are applying for and NOT just summarize your resume.

Your skills that are related to the position	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1.2.3.
Examples of experiences that highlight your skills	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1.2.3.
How does this relate back to the position you're applying for?	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1.2.

Each cover letter should be TARGETED to show how you are a match for a specific position or organization. Here are some things to remember when writing a cover letter:

- You should write a new cover letter for each job you apply for that is TARGETED to show how your skills match the position you're applying for.
- Is a way to show that you can communicate effectively with others.
- Will also help you prepare for an interview.

COVER LETTER

ORGANIZATION- The information in your cover letter should flow in a logical order.

Heading:

- Your name and contact information should be at the top of the page (centered) and should match the heading on your resume
- Date
- Representative name OR "Hiring Manager" if you don't have a specific person to address your letter to
- Company name and address

Anna Prentice
6000 16th Avenue SW
Seattle, WA 98106
206-934-5304
anna.prentice@southseattle.edu

April 1, 2013

Marsha Mellow
Sea Mar Community Health Center
White Center Medical Center
9650 15th Avenue SW, Suite 100
Seattle, WA 98106

Introduction (3-4 sentences):

- Dear (Representative Name)
 - If you don't know the representative or hiring manager name, address to "Hiring Committee"
- State what position you are applying for
- Say how you heard about the position
 - Mention a personal referral if it's appropriate
- Describe why you're excited about the job
- Give examples of education or previous work experience that are relevant to the role

Example:

Dear Hiring Committee,

I am excited to apply for the Administrative Assistant position at SeaMar Community Health as I have a lot of experience providing customer service. This role will also use the skills I am learning through the Medical Business Information Technology program at South Seattle Community College. My instructor, Carrie Oakey, recommended the posting because she thought it was an ideal match.

COVER LETTER

Body Paragraph I & II (4-5 sentences):

- State what the employer needs based on the job description (present tense)
- Talk about an experience that illustrates your strength or skill (past tense)
- Connect the employers need with your experience (future tense)

Conclusion (3-4 sentences):

- Summarize why you are a fit for the role
- Connect position to your future goals
- You may use this paragraph to address barriers such as location
- State that you look forward to the opportunity to speak further
- Include your contact information

Example:

My administrative experiences, ability to provide excellent customer services, and technical training at South have prepared me to be successful in this role. I am looking forward to learning more about your specific insurance policies and expanding my knowledge of medical software to be a continued asset to your company.

Although I currently live in Washington, I can interview via phone or via Skype and I am excited at the prospect of relocating to beautiful Alaska. I look forward to hearing from you to further this conversation. You can reach me via email: anna.prentice@southseattle.edu or via phone: 206-934-5304.

Sincerely,

Anna Prentice

Closing:

- Keep your letter closing professional
 - i.e. "Sincerely" or "Best Regards"
- Signature- Typed if sent electronically or hand-signed if submitting hard copy
- Enclosure (Optional)
 - Shows that another document, like a resume is also attached

COVER LETTER

CHECK YOUR WORK- Use this list to check your cover letter before you hit the "Submit" button!

Appearance/Format

- Cover letter is one page.
- Font style and size are the same throughout the document and easy to read.
- Have someone else check your cover letter for spelling or grammatical mistakes.

Information

- Your name and contact information are at the top of the page and match the heading on your resume.
- Includes date, company name, and address.
- Has introduction paragraph, body paragraph(s), concluding sentences, and closing signature.
- Content uses examples to showcase relevant skill sets and ability to perform the job.
- Cover letter is saved with your name and the position title on computer or flash drive.
- Convert your Cover Letter to PDF if sent via email or uploaded electronically, UNLESS the application requests a Word Document.

Only submit a cover letter if the application asks for one!!!