Reading & Writing
Integrated courses for the college bound student designed to help the student gain proficiency in grammar/writing and reading skills as needed for success in the college or university classroom.

Pronunciation
Emphasis is on improving pronunciation and comprehension of spoken English. Focus on general and individual pronunciation and intonation. Class includes presentations and group communication activities.

Speaking & Listening
These courses teach basic proficiency in speaking and listening in order to advance to the next level of the IEP. Interactive software and media are used to help students master comprehension of naturally spoken American English and respond with natural fluency.

South Seattle Community College

South Seattle Community College, located in beautiful West Seattle, is an accredited, 2-year community college that provides students with a gateway to the University at an affordable cost. We have over 8,500 students representing nearly 100 different cultures and 25 different countries.

Our Intensive English Program places students in college level courses as they progress through their English Language program. We offer a variety of certificate, Vocational and 2-year Associate degree programs. We also offer a High School Completion Program for students needing a high school level diploma and wanting to continue in college.

"The teachers are very friendly and I really learn a lot from the IEP classes. My English has improved a lot after 5 months. Now I am in the last level of IEP and I am taking some college level classes like Art Appreciation. IEP teachers are very caring and want to help us in all our needs."

- Yin, Chen Ho (China)

"South Seattle has a great IEP program for international students. It helped me to improve my English skills step-by-step. Through the South Seattle's IEP program, I developed English skills to attend and take college level classes. Thank you South Seattle IEP! It made a big change in my English skill."

- Ha Ban (Vietnam)

"South Seattle IEP classes are small and students can get individual personalized attention from teachers even with personal problems. Through IEP program at South Seattle, I am more confident with asking questions and speaking in front of people in English. I also have many opportunities to learn about other cultures."

- Jun Wei (Taiwan)
